

Examples of FLC Topics

Cohort-Based (Cox, 2008)

1. Alumni Teaching Scholars Community for Early-Career Faculty
2. Faculty Learning Community on the Role of Part-Time Faculty

Topic-Based Academic (Cox, 2008)

1. Understanding and Developing an Inclusive Campus Climate
2. Develop Skills as a Faculty Mentor
3. Write Winning Grant Proposals
4. Course Directors Collaboration / Clerkship Directors Collaboration
5. Quantitative Literacy
6. Cultivating Intellectual Curiosity in the Health Care Educational Experience
7. Improving Student Research Literacy
8. Developing Collaborative and Engaging Online Learning Experiences
9. Exploring Opportunities for Service Learning and Community Engagement
10. Small Group Learning
11. Enhancing Academic Success of Under-Represented Student Groups in Health Professions
12. Building Bridges – Student/Faculty Bonding through Urban Experiences
13. Engaging in the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning
14. Using Second Life and Virtual Worlds for Teaching and Learning
15. Engaging Learner-Centered and Advocating the Learning Paradigm

Topic-Based Institutional

1. Elements of Success at the Medical Arts and Resource Center
2. Program Development / Quality Improvement
3. Transition and Operations
4. Cultivating a Satisfying Intellectual Life
5. Exploring the Research Infrastructure for Career Development
6. Change and Innovation in Health Care

References

Cox, M.D. (2008). Faculty learning community: Program director's handbook and facilitator's handbook (5th ed.). Oxford, Ohio: Miami University.