

HEALTH SCIENCE CENTER HANDBOOK OF OPERATING PROCEDURES

Chapter 1	Administration and Organization	Effective:	June 2000
Section 1.7	Standing Committees	Revised:	November 2008
Policy 1.7.3	Committee for the Advancement of Women and Minorities	Responsibility	Vice President for Academic Administration

COMMITTEE FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF WOMEN AND MINORITIES

Members

1. Two faculty representatives from each of the five Schools
2. Two representatives from Administrative and Professional staff

Ex-Officio
(without vote)

1. Executive Director, EEO/AA Office
2. Vice President, Human Resources
3. Vice President for Academic Administration
4. Past Chair

Chair

Designated annually by the President from the membership

Charge

To serve in a consultative and advisory capacity to the President and to advise the Vice President for Academic Administration; to participate in the development of priorities, formulate and recommend plans; and facilitate actions that promote the professional development and advancement of women and minorities, faculty in particular, and all Health Science Center employees in general. This Committee is required by The University of System policy.

Term of Membership

Three years
