MEMORANDUM

TO: All Faculty and Staff

FROM: Brett L. Morris
Assistant Vice President for Human Resources

SUBJECT: July-August 2007 Work & Family Life Employee Newsletter
(OHR 2007-038)

More than half of 2007 is over. How the year is flying by!

Soon many of us will be thinking about getting the kids ready for school. Do you remember how you felt each summer when you were getting ready for the start of classes? This issue of Work & Family Life leads off with an excellent article about “easing the transition to a new school year”.

There are a number of other first-rate articles in the July-August edition of Work & Family Life, including some thoughts on leaders and leadership. You may reference the issue by clicking on: http://www.uthscsa.edu/hr/worklife/07_2007.pdf

If you have trouble accessing the newsletter, please contact Priscilla Castillo at 7-2595 or castillop@uthscsa.edu. Thank you.
