

Onward and upward

Dr. Cigarroa's knowledge, talent, leadership and charisma forged new and lasting friendships and partnerships with countless donors and community leaders from throughout San Antonio, South Texas and beyond.

During Dr. Cigarroa's tenure, the UT Health Science Center experienced a surge of growth and success that paved the way for an exciting and promising road ahead. Here are a few examples.

| | THEN Year 2000 | NOW Year 2008 |
|--------------------------------------|-------------------|------------------|
| Research expenditures (FY) | $84 million | $210 million |
| Endowment (FY) | $293 million | $411 million |
| President's Council Annual Fund | $95,000 | $555,000 |
| Economic impact | $8.1 billion | $16.3 billion |
| Uncompensated care | $80 million | $102 million |
| Budget | $351 million | $668 million |
| Payroll (FY) | $217 million | $317 million |
| Employees | 3,374 | 5,985 |
| Square footage | 2,397,054 | 3,472,518 |
| National Institutes of Health awards | $51 million | $107 million |
| Annual Enrollment | 2,543 | 3,060 |
| Annual Hispanic enrollment | 562 | 732 |
| Annual graduates | 872 | 1,044 |
| Total graduates | 17,007 | 25,660 |
| Annual residents | 608 | 740 |
| Institute of Medicine members | 1 | 5 |