

Table of Contents

List of Tables	ii
List of Figures	iii
Acknowledgments	iv
I. The Practice of Non-Physician Clinicians (NPCs) in Texas	1
Introduction	1
Historical Data for the Three NPC Professions	2
Goals and Objectives of the Study	3
II. The Study	4
Best-Informant Meetings	4
Questionnaires: “Health Care and the Practice of Non-Physician Clinicians (NPCs) in Texas”	5
Physician Telephone Interviews	7
III. Key Findings	8
Supply of NPCs in Texas and Factors Influencing Supply	8
Best-Informant Meetings	8
Questionnaires	9
Physician Telephone Interviews	12
Summary of Findings on Changes in the Supply of NPCs	13
Impact of Scope of Practice Laws on Texas NPCs	14
Best-Informant Meetings	14
Questionnaires	15
Physician Telephone Interviews	21
Summary of Findings on NPC Scope of Practice Laws	22
Findings on NPC Impact on Access to Health Care by the Underserved	22
Best-Informant Meetings	22
Questionnaires	23
Physician Telephone Interviews	28
Summary of Findings on the Relationship Between More NPCs and Access to Health Care	29
IV. Conclusions	30
Appendix
A. List of Best-Informant Meeting Participants
B. Summaries of Meeting Discussions
C. Questionnaire: Health Care and the Practice of NPCs in Texas
D. Questions Used in Physician Telephone Interviews
E. Summary of the Texas Physician Assistant Licensing Act	