		Revised:	May 2017
Policy 1.3	Continuation of GME Support in the Event of a Disaster	Responsibility:	Associate Dean for Graduate Medical Education
Continuation of GME Support in the Event of a Disaster
Purpose	The ACGME requires that every Sponsoring Institution have a written plan to address administrative support for GME programs and residents in the event of a disaster or interruption in patient care.
Definition	Disaster: An event or set of events causing significant alteration to the residency experience at one or more residency programs.
Policy	If, because of a disaster, an adequate educational experience cannot be provided for each resident/fellow the sponsoring institution will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Arrange temporary transfers to other programs/institutions until such time as the residency/fellowship program can provide an adequate educational experience for each of its residents/fellows 2. Cooperate in and facilitate permanent transfers to other programs/institutions. Programs/institutions will make the keep/transfer decision expeditiously so as to maximize the likelihood that each resident will timely complete the resident year 3. Inform each transferred resident of the minimum duration of his/her temporary transfer, and continue to keep each resident informed of the minimum duration. If and when a program decides that a temporary transfer will continue to and/or through the end of a residency year, it must so inform each such transferred resident. The Designated Institutional Official (DIO) will call or email the ACGME Institutional Review Committee Executive Director with information and/or requests for information. Similarly the Program Directors will contact the appropriate Review Committee Executive Director with information and/or requests for information. Residents should call or email the appropriate Review Committee Executive Director with information and/or requests for information. Within ten days after the declaration of a disaster, the DIO will contact ACGME to discuss due dates that ACGME will establish for the programs <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To submit program reconfigurations to ACGME and 2. To inform each program's residents of resident transfer decisions. The due dates for submission shall be no later than 30 days after the disaster unless other due dates are approved by ACGME.
