Purpose	The ACGME requires that there be procedures to ensure the continuity of GME oversight in the absence of the DIO.
Policy	In the event that the DIO is not available to provide oversight, represent the GME programs, sign documentation (specifically, program information forms and any documents or correspondence submitted to the ACGME by program directors), or other functions, the role will be filled by the Assistant Dean for Graduate Medical Education. In the absence of the Assistant Dean for Graduate Medical Education, a faculty member of the GME Executive Committee may fill the role.
