

UTHSCSA Graduate Medical Education Policies

Section 2 Policy 2.21.	General Policies and Procedures Alternative and Innovative Approaches for Programs	Effective: Revised: Responsibility:	May 2008 August 2014 May 2017 Designated Institutional Official
Alternative and Innovative Approaches for Programs
Policy	The GME Committee supports carefully designed projects that may promote new methods of high-quality learning and patient care in the clinical learning environment. Programs which are in substantial compliance with the ACGME institutional, common and/or specialty specific program requirements at the levels of Core and Outcome Requirements may utilize alternative or innovative approaches to meet Detail Requirements, provided that such approaches are reviewed and approved by the GMEC, and are monitored as directed by the GMEC. In preparing requests for GMEC consideration, the program director must follow the procedures on the request template at http://uthscsa.edu/gme/documents/2.21RequestTemplate-ProposalforProgramAlternativeandInnovativeApproachesforPrograms2014-000.pdf.		