Please join us for a brief data presentation followed by general discussion with Drs. John Roache, Brett Ginsburg and Naomi Sayre.

Community members and UT Health faculty, staff, students and trainees are welcome and encouraged to attend.
Refreshments and light hors d'oeuvres will be served.

Dr. John Roache

Behavioral approaches to opioid use reduction in patients with chronic musculoskeletal pain

Dr. Brett Ginsburg

Interactions between physical activity and opioid-induced analgesia, reward, and inflammation

Dr. Naomi Sayre

Behavioral and biological aspects of TBI, examining the potential impact of opioid analgesic administration in the hours following a TBI incident
